

WINTER LIGHT

A CAROLINA HAIKU GATHERING

December 14-16, 2012
Winston-Salem, NC

Sponsored by the
North Carolina Haiku Society
Haiku Society of America
Piedmont Spoken & Literary Arts Movement
(Piedmont S.L.A.M.)

Tired of haiku about cats, zombies and computer error
messages?

You are not alone.

*Come see what else haiku can do.
Workshops, readings, and performances by North Carolina poets Lenard D. Moore, Curtis Dunlap, and others. Plus, out of town guests including Ce Rosenow, President of the Haiku Society of America
(hsa-haiku.org)*

PoeTea—A haiku reading and tea-tasting at the Bubbling Well Tea and Tonic Bar, 612 Trade Street

Haiku to Free Verse and Back Again: A Discussion and Reading Between African American Poets—with Lenard D. Moore,
L. Teresa Church, and Adrienne Christian

Unexpected pleasures with art-book creator Josh Hockensmith, poetry & jazz with local musicians, a foodie surprise by The Frugal Poet (frugalpoet.com), a haiku workshop, and more.

For details: nc-haiku.org or contact web@nc-haiku.org